

Help the School in Southern Sudan

The Padang Lutheran Christian Relief has built the Sobat Lutheran Academy in Nyongrial village in Southern Sudan. It is the first permanent school building in the entire area since the end of the civil war. Previously, Students used to learn under the shade of fig tree during the dry season. When it rains, the students often go home.

Currently, 240 students have enrolled in grade one through grade four. It is our hope to be able to add grade five and grade six as funding permits. To lead the school, Padang Lutheran Christian Relief (PLCR) has employed local teachers to give children an opportunity to learn and hope for a better future. At this time, the school program needs $3,000 per month to pay teacher salaries. It costs $500 per month for a teacher. These funds are needed until March 31, 2012 when the school year ends. The Nyongrial community has been able to provide other support in order to continue the operation of the school.

Therefore, PLCR needs your endowment to help maintain salaries and provide needed school supplies. Yes! I want to help the school program with my gift of: $ _____
